

K-love radio serves myself and my family by providing quality music that we all enjoy listening to together. There are many people who listen to the station in our community. The announcers & song lyrics are inspirational and non-offensive, unlike so many other stations currently on the air. It gives us the alternative music we have been looking for. The service of K-love is in the public interest because it provides a popular option for family music.